

Marge Richards invites you to:

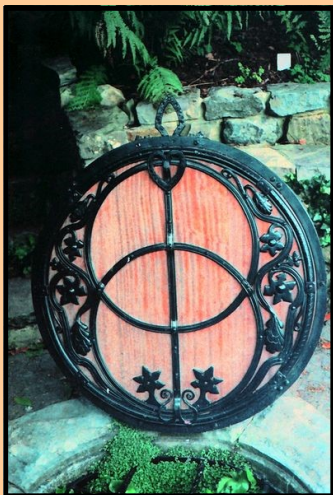

A Day with the Magdalene

November 18, 2019
10:00AM—4:00PM
Kennett Square, PA

The goddess brings us great gifts of creativity and intuitive knowing. She is inclusive and tolerant. She encourages us to live authentically and with emotion.

Fee for this program is $95.
All proceeds go to research for childhood cancer.

I invite you to join me as we begin a day embracing Mary Magdalene in her role as a goddess archetype.

For the last 20 years of my life, I have researched the lost feminine in the Christian story. Along the way, Mary Magdalene has been my guide and muse. I am steeped in devotion to her as she has opened my heart to hear a new version of the story.

Our day together will be filled with ritual, deep discussion, and sharing. Hear how the loss of the sacred feminine has impacted women, and that now is the time for restoration.

Come and join this intimate healing circle!
